Looking for an internship?

Start by exploring our current opportunities at <https://jobs.barco.com>. There you'll find all our open internships and detailed descriptions of what each of them offers.

Don't see the perfect match right now? No worries! You can still submit a spontaneous application. When you do, your profile will be added to our Talent Pool, visible to hiring managers across Barco Belgium. This means that when a relevant opportunity opens up, we can reach out to you directly.

To make your application stand out, include:

- Your CV: Highlight your skills, projects, and achievements.
- A short motivation letter: Tell us what excites you and why you'd love to join our team.
- If you have specific timing in mind, feel free to mention it in, we'll do our best to accommodate.
